Dear {{ name }},

Through the support of {{ company }}, Fund for the Arts spurs creativity and community-building through innovative arts and cultural initiatives. Our donors ensure that every child, parent, and member of our community has equitable access to experiences that transform lives. We award those organizations, artists, schools, community centers, and other change makers who inspire academic excellence as they fuel our region's economic growth through an inclusive peer-review process. Together, we create more art for more people in more places. Click here to give today!

Here's How:
