

FUND FOR THE ARTS

ANNUAL REPORT

IT'S NOT JUST ABOUT THE ARTS, IT'S ABOUT
WHAT THE ARTS DO FOR OUR COMMUNITY

CELEBRATING OUR 70TH YEAR WITH YOU - AND BECAUSE OF YOU!

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

How do you measure a year? Not only is that a brilliantly written song from the Broadway hit “Rent,” it’s a profoundly difficult question to answer- unless you’ve had a year like ours!

Together, in our 70th year, we have re-examined, re-focused, and re-purposed ourselves into a more inclusive, robust, and capacity building organization, steering your generous dollars into critical operating grants, educational workshops, engaging programs, inclusive initiatives, and fueling impact in every local zip code.

Thanks to nearly 15,000 donors, we raised more than $8.4 million in our 2019 campaign.

Fund for the Arts and our Arts Partners served more than 2.1 million people throughout our region through more than 700 impactful grants, drove educational initiatives in and out of schools, created new levels of access to art opportunities across Greater Louisville, led diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives, and helped build the capacity of our arts partners across the sector.

In this report, you will see how we are focusing your dollars on the five priorities of the community’s cultural plan Imagine Greater Louisville 2020: ensuring arts access, building the capacity of our arts and culture community, education, equity, diversity and inclusion, and promoting Greater Louisville as a world-class arts and culture destination.

Most importantly, I hope you’ll feel a sense of pride in your contribution, along with our most sincere gratitude for your generosity. Your critical support is the backbone of our work and an asset to our community.

Christen Boone
President & CEO

ABOUT FUND FOR THE ARTS

Fund for the Arts is a regional nonprofit with the mission to maximize the impact of the arts on economic development, education, and quality of life in our community. The Fund is a convener, promoter, leader, and driver of Imagine Greater Louisville 2020, the region’s arts & cultural plan. It facilitates the largest arts grant program in Kentucky as well as conducts one of the oldest united arts campaigns in the country. For more information, visit www.fundforthearts.org

OUR IMPACT

It's not just about the arts, it's about the impact the arts have on the vibrancy of our lives and our shared goal of building a stronger community. Every zip code, every day. The Fund for the Arts and our arts partners are driving arts access into every neighborhood, improving student outcomes, supporting diverse artists and stories, and elevating Louisville on a national stage.

THE SOUL OF OUR CITY.

The Fund for the Arts is committed to activating the community's cultural plan, Imagine Greater Louisville 2020, organizing around five chief priorities: Access, Cultivation, Education, Promotion, and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

IMAGINE VISION STATEMENTS

ACCESS

Arts, culture and creativity are fully integrated into daily life and accessible to everyone in every neighborhood, every day. More art for more people in more places.

CULTIVATION

Greater Louisville is a magnet for artists and creative professionals, where arts and culture organizations and creative industries, both institutional and emerging, are thriving

EDUCATION

Every child in our community has the opportunity to experience and participate in arts and culture through experiences in their schools, out-of-school programs and with their families.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, & INCLUSION

Cultural equity is leading the way to a more equitable, diverse and inclusive community improving the social connectivity and cultural vitality of the region.

PROMOTION

Greater Louisville is recognized nationally and internationally as a leading city of arts and culture attracting talent to live and work here and tourists to play and stay.

ACCESS TO OUR WORLD-CLASS ARTS COMMUNITY

Greater Louisville has a world-class arts and culture scene. We are working to ensure that everyone in our community has ACCESS to it. Together, we are putting more arts experiences in neighborhoods, in schools, community centers, health and senior care facilities, parks, libraries, and public spaces across Greater Louisville.

CULTURAL PASS

A key example of our commitment to arts access is the Cultural Pass, which offered Greater Louisville youth free access to 59 world-class arts & culture venues, providing engaging arts experiences that reduce summer learning loss. This year, the Cultural Pass was used for more than 39,000 visits, with low-income children accounting for 14,000 of those visits. Participation by low-income children increased 44 percent from the previous year.

“Cultural Pass gets us out more. You sometimes think ‘Zoo and Science Center.’ We have memberships to the Zoo and Science Center. So it’s, pretty day, the zoo, bad day we go to the Science Center. So, the Cultural Pass offers a lot more. It’s educational. We’ve explored the city more. We didn’t even know what Portland was—we’d never been to Portland. We love the Cultural Pass.”

—Katie, mother of 4

CULTIVATION OF OUR CREATIVE PROFESSIONALS

We aspire for Greater Louisville to be a magnet for arts and creative professionals, where arts and culture organizations and creative industries, both institutional and emerging, are thriving. We support and cultivate arts and culture organizations and artists to ensure the ability to deliver a greater impact to the community.

Fund for the Arts is working to build the capacity of these creative professionals and organizations by creating connections to expertise, networks, board development, and leadership. Fund for the Arts hosts the nationally recognized NeXt emerging leader program to develop a strong pipeline to board leadership within our arts and culture community. In this year, the Fund for the Arts delivered capacity building opportunities such as the nationally acclaimed emcArts Artists as Social Change workshop, Philadelphia Mural Arts workshop and monthly lunch and learn events with local experts in fields from social media to advocacy, board governance to fundraising.

In 2019, the Fund for the Arts supported the creative sector financially with grants, scholarships, and earned revenue opportunities.

95 Arts and Culture Organizations

96 Artists

742 Grants to Artists, Organizations, Community Organizations and Schools

Project grants provided opportunities for artists and organizations to deliver impact across the region, and Sustaining Impact Grants provided critical operating support to 23 organizations, nearly double the number from two years ago. SIG invests in organizations delivering exemplary impact through access, education, diversity and promotion. These organizations range from our largest anchor institutions such as the Speed Art Museum, Actors Theatre and Louisville Orchestra to some of our small neighborhood and youth organizations such as River City Drum Corp, Louisville Story Program and Squallis Puppeteers.

"We believe that music and performing have enhanced our son's ability to make connections and draw from his experiences. His confidence in these areas has increased with his involvement with the River City Drum Corp., and being placed in an academic and social environment with peers and adults who consistently support, encourage and challenge him."

— River City Drum Corp. Parent

INSPIRING ARTS IN EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

We believe every child should have the opportunity to experience and participate in arts and culture through experiences in their schools, out of school programs and with their families. The Fund for the Arts provides grants to 236 schools and teachers to bring curriculum based arts in education programs into our schools across the region, and grants for out of school time for 20 community centers. Our arts partners serve an additional 214 schools and 25 out of school time locations each year. In addition, through project and sustaining impact grants, we help to make possible the following:

“Through programming supported and enhanced by Fund for the Arts and local arts organizations, we show children at their most vulnerable and malleable stages what it means to find beauty, rhythm, reason, and understanding through current and historical art forms.”

— Teacher from New Albany-Floyd County Consolidated School Corporation

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, & INCLUSION THROUGHOUT GREATER LOUISVILLE

Ensuring everyone has a seat at the table. Fund for the Arts is an advocate for DIVERSITY, EQUITY, and INCLUSION. We are working to eliminate cultural barriers, bridge cultural divides, and advocate for a more equitable, diverse and inclusive community, improving the social connectivity and cultural vitality of the region.

Through your generosity, Fund for the Arts made 178 grants to more than 50 organizations to advance DEI, serving more than 43,000 people. All organizations funded by the Sustaining Impact Grants program must illustrate their own plan and efforts towards greater diversity in their organizations, and equity and inclusion in our community. This includes organizations like Pandora Productions, and Looking for Lilith Theater Company. These organizations are dedicated to telling the stories of the LGBTQ+ community, and creating programming that examines history and today from women's perspectives. We support several arts organizations providing impactful programs for ethnic minorities and low-income families throughout Greater Louisville. These inclusive dollars also support programs for the visually and hearing impaired, and people on the autism spectrum.

We also increased our engagement with DEI communities by cultivating new donors and advocates through groups like ArtsPride, the Ed Hamilton Society, and Women's Circle. These groups create pipelines for staff, board, and volunteers, elevate artists and arts leaders, and feature works of art, productions and exhibits which speak to under-represented perspectives and experiences.

“Our teaching artists’ acceptance and encouragement of all of the children has resulted in our children learning and demonstrating a greater sense of compassion and empathy toward their classmates. While the artwork is beautiful and adorns many walls and refrigerator doors across the community, VIPS recognizes this as the greatest result of our involvement in this experience.”

—Kathy Mullen, Director of Education at Visually Impaired Preschool Services

“The choir allows our youth the opportunity to practice their English skills, learn to read music and gives them a space for self-expression, all while increasing their love for music.”

—Kristin Burgoyne, Program Director at Americana Community Center

PROMOTION OF OUR VIBRANT ARTS COMMUNITY

World-class arts and culture helps to put Louisville on the map, to elevate our city as a top tier city for business attraction, talent development and cultural tourism. The arts in our community attracted national coverage with stories in the New York Times and on CBS Sunday Morning.

Collectively, the Fund for the Arts and arts organizations generated:

2,755+ Press Mentions | 1,441 National Press Mentions | 111 International Press Mentions

Together, we increased local arts participation in the arts by more than 20% over last year:

2.1 M in Attendance | 181,000 Out of Town Visitors

And people who are engaged in their community are more likely to stay and help build our community:

5,549 Volunteers Engaged in Our Community through the Arts

The entire arts and culture sector generated more than $462 million annually in economic activity.

AWARDS IN THE ARTS

Each year, with national attention, Louisville's Awards in the Arts celebrates the extraordinary arts community in the Greater Louisville region and the arts tremendous contribution to our unique cultural landscape and quality of place. The event enhances Greater Louisville's brand as a world-class arts and culture destination. Most of all, Louisville's Awards in the Arts were established to celebrate the artists themselves, their talent and passion, to create, produce and present transformative and inspiring works of arts, in and for our community.
