

In-Person General Admission for Middle and High School

21c Museum Hotel

Sunday - Saturday | 10a.m. - 9p.m. Reservations needed

Recommended ages: 0 - 21

Art is everywhere at 21c Museum Hotel. Cultural Pass participants are encouraged to come explore North America's first museum devoted solely to art of the 21st century. Follow the clues on our family iSPY game to see if you can find all the artworks listed. Immerse yourself in permanent art installations created for 21c and special changing exhibitions. Also experience Louisville's history and culture through Fallen Fruits art installation in Proof on Main, Practices of Everyday Life. Learn more at: www.21clouisville.com

Arts Council of Southern Indiana

Tuesday - Saturday | 11am - 4pm (T-F) 11am - 2pm (Saturday)

Recommended ages: 1 - 21

Explore our galleries filled with local art and create your own piece in our craft corner. Throughout the summer check-out our multiple workshops on selected books and poetry.

Asia Institute

Fridays | 1:00p.m. - 4:00p.m.

Recommended ages: 5 - 21

Asia Institute - Crane House will provide access to our Rivers display. There will be hands on activities such as origami lessons and Chinese calligraphy.

Belle of Louisville Riverboats

Friday - Sunday | Full calendar: <https://belleoflouisville.org/all-cruises/>

Recommended ages: 0 - 21

To board the Belle of Louisville or her sister vessel, the Mary M. Miller, is to do more than to see Louisville and the Ohio River from a unique perspective — it's also quite literally stepping into a piece of American history. Join us for a Sightseeing Cruise, Harbor History or Sunset Cruise.

Bernheim Arboretum and Research ForestMonday - Sunday | 7:00a.m. - 9:00p.m.*Recommended ages: 0 - 21

Bernheim offers opportunities for learners of all ages and levels to engage with and connect to nature. We inspire our learners to develop a personal lifelong relationship with nature. Enjoy over 35 miles of hiking trails and creeks. Take a stroll in the forest and enjoy the peace of nature, the children's nature playground, birdwatching, fishing (Lake Nevin ONLY - All US Fish & Wildlife rules apply), and the beautiful collections of trees and plants

Carnegie Center for the Art and History, IncMonday - Saturday | 10a.m. - 5p.m.*Recommended ages: 1 - 21

Learning Colors Your World is our summer theme to engage in conversations about culture, social justice, and creating a peaceful understanding world. Participants take a self-guided tour and complete art experiences in the Tinker Space. Cultural Pass visitors will receive an art kit.

Corydon Capitol State Historic SiteWednesday - Sunday | Tours at 10a.m., 12p.m., 2p.m., and 4p.m.*Recommended ages: 5 - 21

Tour the original state Capitol building, which served as Indiana's government center from 1816 to 1825, and the Governor's Headquarters, the home and office to William Hendricks, Indiana's second elected governor.

Culbertson Mansion State Historic SiteWednesday and Friday | Every hour 10a.m. - 4p.m.*Recommended ages: 6 - 21

Join us for a 45-minute guided tour of the Culbertson mansion, a 25,000 square foot Victorian Mansion built in 1869.

The Discovery CenterSunday - Saturday | 9:00a.m. - 4:30p.m. (M-Sat.) 12:00p.m. - 4:30p.m. (Sun.)*Recommended ages: 3 - 21

Walk through history, investigate the mysteries of our cave system, and explore our interactive galleries. Stand in the middle of a 360-degree video reenactment of the Battle of Corydon, one of the only two significant Civil War battles. NEW THIS YEAR! Your Cultural Pass admission can include a tour of the Battle of Corydon Historic site. This tour is only available on Saturdays.

Farmington Historic PlantationWednesdays | 10a.m. - 3p.m.*Recommended ages: 6 - 21

Parents will lead a self-guided tour of the main house and plantation grounds with their children, then move to the Project Archeology Investigation Shelter to examine artifacts uncovered at a cabin that was home to enslaved people at Farmington.

Flamenco Louisville

Saturday, July 31 | 10a.m. - 11a.m.

Recommended ages: 5 - 21

Flamenco Louisville performs authentic flamenco music and dance while whisking you away on a tour of southern Spain. Dancers in colorful costumes perform intricate movement and rhythmic footwork, accompanied by live singing and guitar. Various cities and regions of Andalucia are introduced between pieces, connecting them with their traditional palos (“song forms”). Audience members will be asked to join in with jaleos (“words of encouragement”) and palmas (“hand clapping”). The program includes historical and cultural information about Spain and the Spanish-speaking nations. The program will conclude with an audience Q&A.

Historic Locust Grove Interpreters of the Enslaved

Tuesdays | 11:00a.m. - 3:00p.m.

Recommended ages: 6 - 21

Historic site offers child-centered, hands-on activities and tours of historic 18th-century buildings with a focus on the stories of the enslaved community, period games, exhibit gallery, extensive grounds and gardens for picnics, and more.

Historic Old Louisville Walking Tour

Wednesdays | 1:30p.m.

Recommended ages: 5 - 21

The Historic Old Louisville Walking Tour is a 60-minute guided tour focusing on the architecture and history in the heart of the Victorian mansion district. Children will learn fun facts about the history of Louisville, the styles of the mansions, identify whimsical architectural features, and learn about the people who lived there.

Indian Creek Trail

Sunday - Saturday | 8:00a.m. - 7p.m.

Recommended ages: 0 - 21

Indian Creek Trail is a recreational and alternate transportation trail project around Corydon, Indiana. Everyone is invited to walk, run or bike the trail.

Kentucky Derby Museum

Tuesdays and Sundays | 8:00a.m. - 5p.m. (Tues.) 11a.m. - 5p.m. (Sun)

Recommended ages: 2 - 21

The Kentucky Derby Museum is excited to offer general admission to any Cultural Pass holder. General admission includes: two floors of self-guided museum exhibits, our 360-degree immersive film: The Greatest Race, and a 30-minute historic walking tour of Churchill Downs.

Kentucky Science Center
Sundays | 9:30a.m. - 5:00p.m.
Recommended ages: 0 - 18

Come Do Science with us! Enjoy 50,000 square feet of exhibit space in Kentucky's largest hands-on science museum. Tickets need to be reserved. Cultural Pass participants can use the code: CUPSS.

Kentucky Shakespeare, Inc.
Tuesday - Sunday | Pre-show performance: 7:15p.m.; Performance: 8:00p.m.
Recommended ages: 8 - 21

Kentucky Shakespeare's 61st season of the free Kentucky Shakespeare Festival in Central Park (June 16-August 8) - featuring professional productions of SHAKESPEARE IN LOVE and HENRY V. Plus Kentucky Shakespeare's Globe Players high school training program with MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM and Louisville Ballet with SHAKESPEARE IN DANCE.

KMAC Museum
Wednesday - Sunday | 10a.m. - 4:00p.m.
Recommended ages: 0 - 21

Visit KMAC Museum's summer exhibition, museum shop and cafe, and get a take home art project! You will be able to tour two floors of exhibition space showcasing how contemporary art builds off traditional craft practices specific to the Commonwealth.

Looking for Lilith Theatre Company
June 4 - 6 & July 16 - 18 | <http://lookingforlilith.org/culturalpasslouisville>
Recommended ages: 6 - 21

Journey through the streets of our hometown to meet the amazing Louisville suffragists who fought for women's right to vote! Our Suffrage Driving & Walking Tour will guide participants to travel to locations from Seelbach Hotel to Simmons College to Central High School and explore where these courageous women lived and worked. Starting location will be at the Main Library (York St. driveway).

Louisville Chorus
Saturday, July 3 | 4:00p.m.
Recommended ages: 1 - 21

Fanfare for the 4th - Musical Visions of America. Concert is a COVID-friendly outdoor event with social distancing space for attendees. Concert location will be announced soon. Check our website www.louisvillechorus.org for location details.

Louisville Visual Art
Monday - Wednesday | 11a.m. - 2p.m.
Recommended ages: 7 - 21

CHALK IT UP!: An introduction to public art through chalk drawing activities on outdoor concrete surfaces at LVA.

Louisville Water Tower ParkTuesdays and Wednesdays | 10a.m. - 5p.m.*Recommended ages: 0 - 21

A visit to Louisville Water Tower Park includes a visit to the WaterWorks Museum. The museum highlights Louisville Water's considerable archive of historic photographs (some dating back to 1860), films and memorabilia. The museum appeals to visitors of all ages with tower-building activities, a dress up station to dress like a water company employee, scavenger hunts and much more.

Visitors can also take a guided tour of the grounds to learn about the iconic Water Tower. Also included in the tour is time inside Pumping Station No. 3, to see a 100-foot-tall restored steam pump and film on its history.

Louisville ZooMondays | 10a.m. - 5p.m.*Recommended ages: 0 - 21

The Cultural Pass will provide free general admission to the Louisville Zoo. Parking is not included with the Cultural Pass and is $6 per vehicle.

Muhammed Ali CenterTuesday - Sunday | 12:00p.m. - 5p.m.*Recommended ages: 8 - 21

A visit to the Center is not just an experience, but a journey into the heart of a champion. The Center's three levels of award-winning exhibits and galleries invite visitors to explore Muhammad Ali's legendary life, as well as to reflect upon one's own individual values, inner strength, character, and what makes you the greatest person you can be. Take a breathtaking journey through the Center's interactive and multimedia exhibits and discover the six core principles that Muhammad Ali embraced throughout his life and how they gave him the wherewithal to be the best athlete he could be, the strength and courage to stand up for what he believed, and the inspiration to reach people around the world and dedicate himself to helping others.

Additionally, the Muhammad Ali Center's temporary exhibition, Truth Be Told: The Policies That Impacted Black Lives, will be open until February 2022.

Museum of the American Printing House for the BlindMonday - Saturday | 8:30a.m. - 4:30p.m. (M-F), 10a.m. - 3p.m. (Sat)*Recommended ages: 6 - 21

Our guests will get a guided tour of the APH factory, exploring how this 162 year old company manufactures braille and talking books. Also guests will visit the award winning museum of the American Printing House for the Blind. The museum features an array of the first tactile books, maps, braillewriters, sound recording and playback machinery, printing equipment, and tools made to help people who are blind navigate their world.

Riverside, the Farnsley-Moremén Landing

Fridays | 10a.m. - 4:30p.m.

Recommended ages: 5 - 21

Cultural Pass visitors will tour the 1837 Farnsley-Moremén House and get the opportunity to make their own discoveries while digging alongside professional archaeologists at the latest excavation site.

Roots 101 African American Museum

Thursdays | 1:00p.m. - 4:00p.m.

Recommended ages: 0 - 21

Use your Cultural Pass to take a self-guided tour of Roots 101 African American Museum.

Speed Art Museum

Fridays | 3p.m. - 8p.m.

Recommended ages: 0 - 21

Cultural Pass participants will get free admission to the Speed Art Museum's permanent and summer exhibitions featuring art collections from Isabelle de Borchgrave: Fashioning Art from Paper, and Contemporary glass from the Adele and Leonard Leight collection. Admission will include a family guide featuring a museum scavenger hunt. Free art-kits will also be provided with admission for children to take home and enjoy.

The Falls of the Ohio State Park

Sunday - Saturday | 9a.m. - 5p.m.

Recommended ages: 3 - 21

Located on the banks of the Ohio River just north of downtown Louisville, the Falls of the Ohio Interpretive Center highlights the unique site through four themes: an Ancient Sea, the Changing Land, Converging Cultures, and the Falls Today. There are many interactive parts in the gallery, and two 11 minute films.

The Little Loomhouse

Saturdays | 11a.m. - 3p.m.

Recommended ages: 5 - 21

Come and enjoy an outdoor historical seek and find.

The Conrad-Caldwell House

Wednesdays | 9a.m. - 4p.m.

Recommended ages: 5 - 21

Join us in learning more about the Conrad and Caldwell families through an activity booth on the lawn. Families can also take a self-guided tours through the museum. Have fun finding our hidden clues while learning what life was like a hundred years ago.

Thomas Edison House

Tuesday - Saturday | 10a.m. - 2p.m.

Recommended ages: 7 - 21

The first and second Tuesdays of every month, we will provide general admission for individuals presenting the Cultural Pass. A reservation in advance is required due to COVID restrictions and guidelines.

Yew Dell Botanical Gardens

Wednesdays and Sundays | 10a.m. - 4p.m. (Wed.), 12p.m. - 4p.m. (Sun.)

Recommended ages: 3 - 21

Come visit our Fairy Forest, pickup a scavenger hunt, or check out an activity backpack. Enjoy our display gardens, an arboretum, and the woodland trails with a pond.