At Fund for the Arts (FFTA), we envision a healthy and vibrant community where everyone embraces the art that exists in our lives every day. We believe that art is a right, not a privilege, because art is a fundamental expression of the human condition. 5x5 and Teacher Arts Grant (TAG)-funded programs demonstrate FFTA's commitment to supporting students, teachers, and learning throughout our community.

FFTA recognizes the diversity, equity, and inclusion policies of school districts in Greater Louisville, and prioritizes equity as a core value and guiding principle in all our grant-funded programs and investments.

We acknowledge that some of the programs available through 5x5 and TAG address difficult topics. In determining which program you will apply for and provide to your students, we encourage you to reach out to the arts program provider directly to learn more about the program content.

How do 5x5 and TAG work?

Teachers and school administrators apply through the FFTA online grant portal. Applications should be submitted by your school's 5x5/TAG liaison. If you do not know who your school's liaison is, or a new liaison is needed, please check with your principal, or contact grants@fundforthearts.org. All applications must have principal approval before they are submitted.

Who is eligible to apply for 5x5 and TAG? K-12 teachers and administrators in Bullitt, Jefferson, Oldham, and Shelby counties in Kentucky; and Clark, Floyd, and Harrison counties in Indiana.

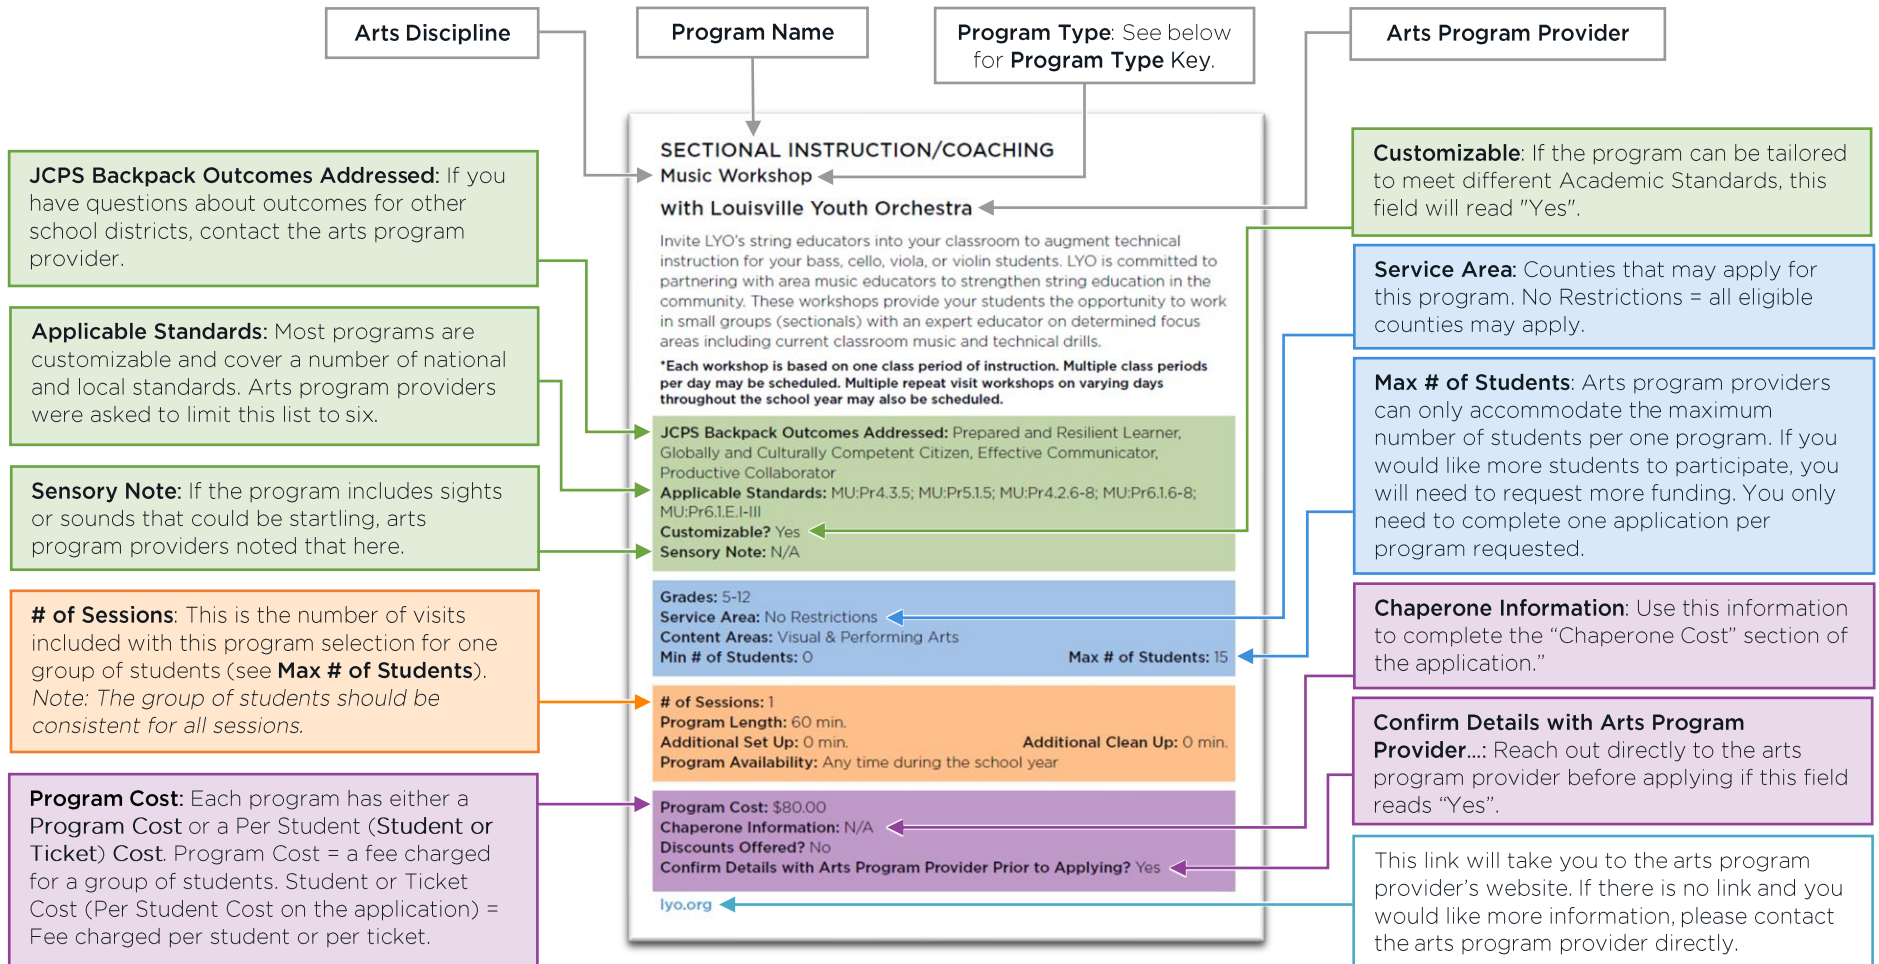

Tips for Applicants:

- Use the At-A-Glance beginning on page six to search by discipline, academic content connections, or grade level to find the program best suited for your classroom.
- Buses and transportation are not included in the Program and Student/Ticket Costs for Field Trips. Your school is responsible for getting students to and from the off-site program. If you need additional funds to cover this expense, complete the "Bus Cost" section on the Funding Request page of the application. FFTA pays schools directly for awarded bus funds.
- A Contact Sheet with all participating arts program provider contact information has been provided beginning on page four. Please contact the arts program provider directly with program-specific questions.
- Program descriptions are listed alphabetically by program name in two sections: In-Person (pages 12-63) and Virtual only (pages 64-66).
- If your school is applying for more than one program, we recommend no more than six program applications per school. Please complete one application per requested program (i.e. a program for multiple classes can be applied for on one application as long as the program is the same).

Questions?

For program-specific questions and to confirm pricing, please contact arts program providers directly. For general questions, contact the Community Investment & Support Team at grants@fundforthearts.org.

DRAMA ACROSS THE CURRICULUM: ARTS INTEGRATION RESIDENCIES

Theater Residency

with StageOne Family Theatre

StageOne believes that drama and the arts can be used to help teach any subject. SO works with you to build a customized program for your classroom based on your learning goals. 1. You pick the subject (e.g. English, Science, Emotional Literacy, Shakespeare, etc.). 2. SO meets with you over the phone or in person, and discuss together what your learning goals are and how they can develop a drama-based program for your subject area. 3. SO checks in with you during and after your residency to help measure success and shape the curriculum.

Activities will be sent to the classroom teacher before and during the residency. Please note that a single 4-session residency is intended for one classroom, or the equivalent of 30 students. If you wish to schedule this residency for multiple classes, StageOne can accommodate two classes running concurrently.

A DRAMATIC APPROACH TO CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Theater Residency

with StageOne Family Theatre

What does it mean to move through conflict? What are strategies for conflict resolution? How can I learn empathy through cooperating/collaborating with others? These questions and more are asked through a 4-day workshop in which students define both community and conflict, and perform ways to address issues that arise within their specific contexts. At the end of this workshop, students will know how to develop community agreements, recognize their strengths as collaborators, and understand the value of listening.

Activities will be sent to the classroom teacher before and during the residency. Please note that a single 4-session residency is intended for one classroom, or the equivalent of 30 students. EVEN PUPPETS HAVE PROBLEMS

Theater Residency or Workshop with Looking for Lilith Theatre Company

In Even Puppets Have Problems: Interactive Drama for Managing Conflict (grades K-2), a puppeteer shares their show where puppet friends are fighting. The audience helps out by offering ways to express their anger safely, calm down and work through their conflicts, with a few audience members even getting the chance to take over the voice for one of the puppets. Addressing such “pre-bullying” behavior with younger audiences sets them up to have more tools to resist bullying as they mature. In the residency version, students get to use role-play to explore how to handle real life peer conflicts, and practice more ways to express anger safely, calm down, and problem solve.

Classroom space where desks, tables, and chairs can be moved to the side is preferred to allow students to move during the drama.

FLAMENCO EXPERIENTIAL WORKSHOP: EXPRESS YOURSELF WITH FLAMENCO

Dance Workshop with Flamenco Louisville

Students will enjoy a demonstration of authentic Flamenco dance with live musical accompaniment and then experience flamenco rhythm and movement directly. Drawing heavily on Kentucky core curriculum principles in dance and music, students will learn basic Flamenco movements of the upper body and feet, how to accompany Flamenco dance and music with rhythmic handclapping, and how to sequence movement within Flamenco structure in response to the music. Spanish vocabulary can be incorporated into the instruction to add foreign language components to the program. Great for Spanish language students and as an addition to an assembly program.

INSIDE LPM: LEARN HOW TO BECOME A REPORTER, PODCASTER, OR RADIO DJ

Presenting & Multidisciplinary Arts Field Trip with Louisville Public Media

Students learn about careers in radio and practice the skills necessary to become a radio and/or podcast host, journalist, photographer or audio engineer. Get an inside look at the art behind the sounds you hear on-air and the visuals you see online through a selection of hands-on activities. Field Trip activities include: a tour of LPM studios and newsroom, presentation & Q&A from LPM's music and news departments, and a final group activity - topic to be selected by schools/teachers. Hands-on activities teachers can choose from include: writing & recording a promo, Writing & recording news copy, how to interview, how to be a host, how to work a board, what audio editing looks like, how to make great recordings with your phone, and how to take great photos with your phone.

Teachers and schools who choose to host LPM Field Trip for their students will be given additional options to best fit the needs of their classes. Each lesson can be adapted and presented through either a language arts, history lens, humanities, or an arts (music/visual) lens.

LILLY AND THE PIRATES

Theater Field Trip with StageOne Family Theatre

Based on the middle grade novel, Lilly and the Pirates by Phyllis Root. Lilly is a ten-year-old worrywart. To keep her concerns at bay, she diligently and fervently lists them in a worry book. Her globe-trotting scientist-parents don't worry about anything. When they learn of a rare sighting of the frangipani fruit fly, they set sail for the fabled Shipwreck Islands. Since water is her greatest fear, Lilly stays behind with her eccentric, librarian great-uncle. She starts to suspect that her uncle's town is populated by retired pirates, including the eccentric next-door neighbor Mrs. Teagarden. Book by Phyllis Root, dramatization by John Maclay, Brett Ryback, and Will Eno.

MUSICAL EXPLORATIONS: SINGING YOUR STORY

Music Workshop

with Louisville Public Media

Listening, responding, and connecting, students explore all facets of songwriting. Students listen to diverse musical examples, discuss their differences and establish a concept of song form and mood. Students then reflect on a moment that made them feel notable emotion, using creative writing techniques to distill those emotions into a song.

Teachers and schools who choose to host Musical Explorations at their school will be given additional options to best fit the needs of their students. Each lesson can be adapted and presented through either a language arts, history lens, humanities, or an arts (music/visual) lens. Additionally, the instructor can see a rotation of classes at the school within one day rather than a school booking a lesson for a single class.

OFF THE PAGE, ON THE STAGE! SHOW #1: MUFARO'S BEAUTIFUL DAUGHTERS

Theater Field Trip with Faith Works Performing Arts

An African villager named Mufaro has two daughters whom everyone agrees are beautiful. But, they have their differences. Manyara possesses a bad temper and is self-centered (but never in front of Mufaro); Nyasha is kind and considerate to people and to animals. When Mufaro learns that the King is in the process of meeting all of the most worthy and beautiful women in order to choose a wife, he decides that both of his daughters should go. Celebrate goodness, generosity, and love with traditional dancing, rhythmic drumming, and glorious African song. Based on the 1988 Caldecott Honor Award book. Field Trip includes: one (1) performance of Mufaro's Beautiful Daughters and cast talkback; two (2) performing arts workshops: on stage (drama, dance, music) and behind the scenes (crafts, puppets, creative); KIDS TAKE THE STAGE: participants take the stage to display their talents. As an all-day Field Trip, lunch time will be included in the schedule, but students or schools must bring their own lunch.

Faith Works is comprised of predominately African American Performers & Teaching Artists. All experiences take place at the Russell Theater Space located at 516 South 17th Street. If schools want to bring more than 80 students, Faith Works can accommodate them over multiple days.Shows may be subject to change.

OFF THE PAGE, ON THE STAGE! SHOW #3: OH FREEDOM! THE STORY OF THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD

Theater Field Trip with Faith Works Performing Arts

The greatest collaboration against racism in American history before the Civil Rights Movement was the Underground Railroad, in which persons of all ethnic backgrounds from North and South came together to resist the oppression of slavery by helping escaped slaves make their way to free territory in the years before the Civil War. Oh Freedom! The Story of the Underground Railroad celebrates this collaboration combining the stories of the men and women who were active in the fight against slavery with songs of the period. Field Trip includes: one (1) performance of Oh Freedom! and cast talkback; two (2) performing arts workshops: on stage (drama, dance, music) and behind the scenes (crafts, puppets, creative); KIDS TAKE THE STAGE: participants take the stage to display their talents. THE POWER OF STORIES: “THE DANGER OF A SINGLE STORY”

Theater Residency

with StageOne Family Theatre

This residency takes inspiration from writer and activist Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie’s now world-famous 2009 TED Talk, “The Danger of a Single Story” and incorporates storytelling techniques from The Moth and other storytellers. Over the 4-session residency, students discuss the power of storytelling, generate original stories from their lived experiences, practice dramatic techniques to explore the theme “I come from a place...”, and finish with a collaborative story share.

Activities will be sent to the classroom teacher before and during the residency. Please note that a single 4-session residency is intended for one classroom, or the equivalent of 30 students. If you wish to schedule this residency for multiple classes, StageOne can accommodate two classes running concurrently.

STORY DRAMA: EXPLORING SEQUENCING AND PLOT STRUCTURE

Theater Residency

with StageOne Family Theatre

By using basic actor tools and the fundamentals of theatre, students will understand story elements and how they are structured in a piece of writing. Not only will students be able to identify elements of the plot, but they will get to become actors and audience members to bring this story to life! Teachers will work with StageOne Teaching Artists to choose a title best suited for this activity.

Activities will be sent to the classroom teacher before and during the residency. Please note that a single 4-session residency is intended for one classroom, or the equivalent of 30 students. If you wish to schedule this residency for multiple classes, StageOne can accommodate two classes running concurrently.

WHO IS FLORENCE PRICE?: AN INTERACTIVE MUSICAL EVENT

Music Performance/Exhibit with Louisville Academy of Music

What is your dream? Join the Louisville Academy of Music in reading Who is Florence Price? by the children of the Kaufman Music Center in New York. Program discussion will include Price's experiences with racism and sexism as she pursued her dream of becoming a famous composer. LAM faculty will then perform Price's "String Quartet No. 1." The event concludes with an interactive graphic composition activity. Students can become composers, just like Florence Price!

Four rooms are required for breakout sessions in the second half of this workshop. Louisville Academy of Music will need one large room for the beginning of the workshop and 3 smaller rooms (for example, classrooms) that can hold around 1/4 of the students for the second half.
