At Fund for the Arts (FFTA), we envision a healthy and vibrant community where everyone embraces the art that exists in our lives every day. We believe that art is a right, not a privilege, because art is a fundamental expression of the human condition. 5x5 and Teacher Arts Grant (TAG)-funded programs demonstrate FFTA's commitment to supporting students, teachers, and learning throughout our community.

FFTA recognizes the diversity, equity, and inclusion policies of school districts in Greater Louisville, and prioritizes equity as a core value and guiding principle in all our grant-funded programs and investments.

We acknowledge that some of the programs available through 5x5 and TAG address difficult topics. In determining which program you will apply for and provide to your students, we encourage you to reach out to the arts organization directly to learn more about the program content.

How do 5x5 and TAG work?

Teachers and school administrators apply through the FFTA online grant portal. Applications should be submitted by your school's 5x5/TAG liaison. If you do not know who your school's liaison is, or a new liaison is needed, please check with your principal, or contact grants@fundforthearts.org. All applications must have principal approval before they are submitted.

Who is eligible to apply for 5x5 and TAG? K-12 teachers and administrators in Bullitt, Jefferson, Oldham, and Shelby counties in Kentucky; and Clark, Floyd, and Harrison counties in Indiana.

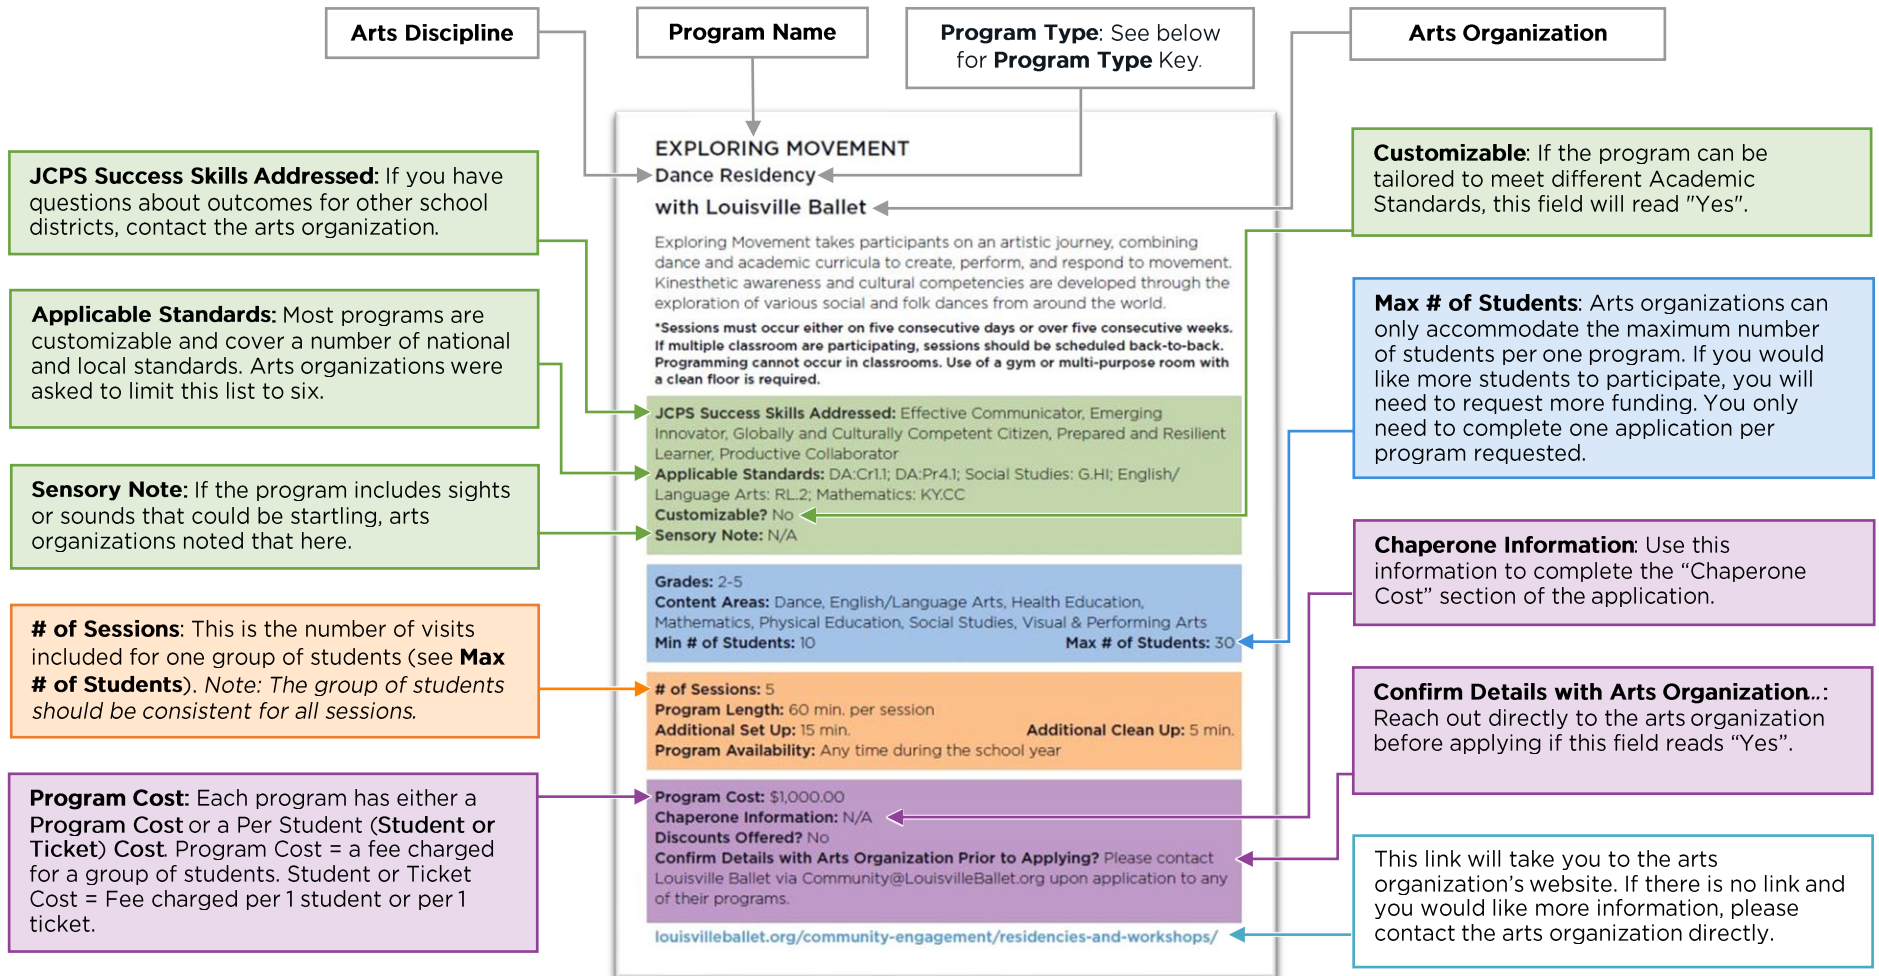

Tips for Applicants:

- Use the At-A-Glance beginning on page six to search by discipline, academic content connections, or grade level to find the program best suited for your classroom.
- Buses and transportation are not included in the Program and Student/Ticket Costs for Field Trips. Your school is responsible for getting students to and from the off-site program. If you need additional funds to cover this expense, complete the "Bus Cost" section on the Funding Request page of the application. FFTA pays schools directly for awarded bus funds.
- A Contact Sheet with all participating arts organization contact information has been provided beginning on page four. Please contact the arts organization directly with program-specific questions.
- Program descriptions are listed alphabetically by program name beginning on page 12.
- If your school is applying for more than one program, we recommend no more than four program applications per school. Please complete one application per requested program (i.e. a program for multiple classes can be applied for on one application as long as the program is the same).

Questions?

For program-specific questions and to confirm pricing, please contact arts organizations directly. For general questions, contact the Community Investment & Support Team at grants@fundforthearts.org.

THE ART OF BECOMING A DJ

Music Residency or Workshop

with Prominent Youth of America

The Art of Becoming a DJ is designed to teach students the fundamentals of DJing, from the history of DJing as an element of Hip-Hop culture to the structure of music and appropriate music selection for different audiences. The program covers beat matching, sync, basic mixing techniques, intermediate mixing techniques, and advanced mixing techniques. Students will also learn how to produce DJ mixes and perform live DJ sets. By taking a hands-on approach to learning, this program prepares students for success in the fast-paced world of DJing and equips them with the skills necessary to express their creativity through music.

Most activities require access to TV/SMART Boards.

ATL PRESENTS: A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Theater Field Trip

with Actors Theatre of Louisville

Ebenezer Scrooge, the ghosts of Christmas, and the delightful world of Dickens' imagination return to Actors Theatre this holiday season in a new production brought to life with music and a spirited ensemble. This acclaimed and faithful adaptation of the classic tale nimbly channels all the spectral visitations and warmhearted humor of the original story, rekindling a beloved family tradition—and proving that even for the most solitary miser, it's never too late to find community, kindness, and a second chance.

ATL PRESENTS: THE COMEDY OF ERRORS

Theater Field Trip

with Actors Theatre of Louisville

Actors Theatre of Louisville welcomes back New York-based company Fiasco Theater as they combine their joyful, actor-driven approach to Shakespeare with the ingenuity of the Saunders Collective—a family of multi-talented performers, singers, composers and musicians. Featuring original music, this collaboration breathes magical new life into the classic madcap farce about two pairs of identical twins, separated in a shipwreck, whose day roaming the same city leads to mistaken identities, cascading misadventures, and gloriously silly comic confusion.

ATL PRESENTS: WHERE DID WE SIT ON THE BUS?

MULTILINGUAL RESIDENCY

Theater Residency

with Actors Theatre of Louisville

Participants will use the text, Where Did We Sit on the Bus, by Brian Quijada, as a foundation to celebrate lived stories through an arts-integration, multilingual approach—with the experience culminating in a songwriting share. Where Did We Sit on the Bus is a digital performance offering. Students will see clips of the actual show, and use the text/script. This theatrical mixtape explores the experience of growing up in an immigrant family and finding identity in making art. Performed by a dynamic actress/singer/musician, it fuses Latin rhythms, hip-hop, and spoken word poetry

DRAMA ACROSS THE CURRICULUM: ARTS INTEGRATION RESIDENCIES

Theater Residency

with StageOne Family Theatre

StageOne believes that drama and the arts can be used to help teach any subject. SO works with you to build a customized program for your classroom based on your learning goals. 1. You pick the subject (e.g. English, Science, Emotional Literacy, Shakespeare, etc.). 2. SO meets with you over the phone or in person, and discuss together what your learning goals are and how they can develop a drama-based program for your subject area. 3. SO checks in with you during and after your residency to help measure success and shape the curriculum.

Activities will be sent to the classroom teacher before and during the residency. Please note that a single 4-session residency is intended for one classroom, or the equivalent of 30 students.

A DRAMATIC APPROACH TO CONFLICT RESOLUTION Theater Residency

with StageOne Family Theatre

What does it mean to move through conflict? What are strategies for conflict resolution? How can I learn empathy through cooperating/collaborating with others? These questions and more are asked through a 4-day workshop in which students define both community and conflict, and perform ways to address issues that arise within their specific contexts. At the end of this workshop, students will know how to develop community agreements, recognize their strengths as collaborators, and understand the value of listening.

Activities will be sent to the classroom teacher before and during the residency. Please note that a single 4-session residency is intended for one classroom, or the equivalent of 30 students.

ELEPHANT AND PIGGIE'S "WE'RE IN A PLAY"

Musical Theater Field Trip

with StageOne Family Theatre

An elephant named Gerald and a pig named Piggie are best, best, "bestus" (a word Gerald and Piggie made up that means "very best") friends, but Gerald worries that something could go wrong that would end their friendship. Piggie is not worried at all. She's even happier and more excited than usual. That's because she and Gerald are invited to a party hosted by the Squirrelles, three singing squirrels who love to have a good time. And so begins a day when anything is possible.

EVEN PUPPETS HAVE PROBLEMS

Theater Residency or Workshop

with Looking for Lilith Theatre Company

In this fun, interactive workshop or residency, students help a group of puppet friends solve a conflict—learning how to handle big feelings along the way. With humor and heart, they explore calming strategies, practice role-play, and even voice puppets themselves. Designed for younger students, this program builds key social-emotional skills like empathy, communication, and peaceful problem-solving. The extended residency includes deeper role-play, emotional vocabulary building, and tools to manage anger and peer conflict. Even Puppets Have Problems empowers kids to navigate everyday challenges and become peacemakers in the classroom—and beyond.

EXPLORING PERSPECTIVES: NATIVE AMERICANS ENCOUNTER EUROPEANS

Theater Residency

with Looking for Lilith Theatre Company

This 4-day theatre residency invites upper elementary students to examine Columbus's 1492 arrival through the eyes of the Taino people, the island's Indigenous inhabitants. Using Jane Yolen's Encounter and dramatic storytelling, students uncover overlooked perspectives and reframe a familiar historical moment. Through collaborative theatre activities, they develop original scenes, build empathy, and strengthen critical thinking. The residency supports ELA and social studies standards while encouraging inclusive dialogue, cultural awareness, and creative expression. Exploring Perspectives offers a powerful way to help students see history—and the world—through someone else's eyes.

FORM & FUNCTION

Visual Arts Residency, Field Trip with Louisville Visual Art

In this 5-session Residency, Louisville Water and Louisville Visual Art engage classrooms with activities that focus on water education. A Louisville Water representative introduces the program at each participating school. LVA teaching artists then lead students in small groups on how to design and construct a 3D model of a water tower. Lessons focus on the properties of water and the form, purpose, and function of a water tower; discussions on Greek and Roman architecture; and Louisville Water's history and critical role in the health and wellness of our communities.

You have the option of a Field Trip to the WaterWorks Museum at the conclusion of the program. This is an add-on to awarded Form & Function Residencies. If you are interested in opting in to the Field Trip, please add to your Funding Request $5 per student and bus costs, if needed.

MONSTERS UNDER THE BED: COPING WITH FEAR AND ANXIETY

with Looking for Lilith Theatre Company

This imaginative workshop or residency helps students face fears and big feelings—one friendly monster at a time. With guidance from a Looking for Lilith teaching artist, students create their own monster characters to explore emotions like fear and anxiety in a safe, playful setting. Through drama and storytelling, they externalize tough feelings, practice age-appropriate coping skills, and build confidence, empathy, and emotional awareness. Whether a single session or multi-day experience, Monsters Under the Bed turns fear into understanding—using creativity to foster emotional resilience and self-expression in young people. Where imagination becomes a tool for growth.

Classroom space where desks, tables, and chairs can be moved to the side is preferred to allow students to move during the drama.

MUSICAL EXPLORATIONS: SINGING YOUR STORY

Music Workshop

with Louisville Public Media

Listening, responding, and connecting, students explore all facets of songwriting. Students listen to diverse musical examples, discuss their differences and establish a concept of song form and mood. Students then reflect on a moment that made them feel notable emotion, using creative writing techniques to distill those emotions into a song.

Teachers and schools who choose to host Musical Explorations at their school will be given additional options to best fit the needs of their students. Each lesson can be adapted and presented through either a language arts, history lens, humanities, or an arts (music/visual) lens. Additionally, the instructor can see a rotation of classes at the school within one day rather than a school booking a lesson for a single class.

STORYTELLERS LIVE! Theater Performance/Exhibit with StageOne Family Theatre

This interactive performance brings children's illustrated story books to life! A Storytellers LIVE! performance is 30-45 minutes in length. You choose from a curated list of "Book Bundles" which stories you would like to see performed, SO comes to your school and performs those stories in your auditorium/stage/cafeteria or gym. Students will engage with the Storytellers LIVE! performance through interactive dialogue and some movement. Book Bundles are categorized by theme so that you can decide which stories are most appropriate for your school and community.

SO can accommodate a total of 3 performances in a single day at one school. If you wish to schedule multiple performances in one day, SO requests that performances happen back-to-back.

A UNIVERSE OF STORIES: DANCING YOUR FAVORITE BOOKS

Dance Residency or Workshop

with Ambo Dance Theatre

Enjoy a reading of some of your favorite children's stories, read by Ambo Dance Theatre representatives. Students will then participate in a series of movement and craft-based activities inspired by that story! All stories have themes centered around social-emotional growth and recognizing the humanity of others. Teachers can choose from a wide selection of books in Ambo Dance Theatre's library. They may also work with Ambo in advance of the program to source specific titles not already available.

Use of a classroom with open space to move, or use of a gym, auditorium, or multi-purpose with a clean floor is required.

WHO IS FLORENCE PRICE?: QUARTET VERSION

Music Performance/Exhibit

with Louisville Academy of Music

What is your dream? Join the Louisville Academy of Music in reading “Who is Florence Price?” by the children of the Kaufman Music Center in New York. Program discussion will include Price’s experiences with racism and sexism as she pursued her dream of becoming a famous composer. LAM faculty will then perform Price’s “String Quartet No. 1.” The event concludes with an interactive graphic composition activity. Students can become composers, just like Florence Price!

Four rooms are required for breakout sessions in the second half of this workshop. Louisville Academy of Music will need one large room for the beginning of the workshop and 3 smaller rooms (for example, classrooms) that can hold around 1/4 of the students for the second half.

YOUTHSPEAK: AN INTRODUCTION TO DEVISING RESIDENCY

Theater Residency

with Looking for Lilith Theatre Company

In this engaging residency, students create original scenes through devising—a collaborative theatre process that centers their voices and experiences. Guided by Looking for Lilith teaching artists, students explore real-life issues that matter to them, developing confidence, creativity, and communication skills. Whether student-driven or aligned with classroom goals, each YouthSpeak residency is tailored to your group. Students learn ensemble-based techniques, build scenes around meaningful themes, and see their stories come to life on stage. YouthSpeak empowers young people to speak up, think critically, and connect through storytelling—with lasting impact in and beyond the classroom.
